BAYSHORE HISTORICAL SOCIETY
Society notes since June 2015

The 2015 Dinner-On-The-Bay in July at Captain Bill’s and Pot Luck Dinner in December at the Bay Shore-Brightwaters Library were well attended and each event proved to be an experience indicative of the dedication of those who volunteer their time as well as the communal spirit of the Society members in general. Phil, Jo Ann, MaryAnn, Mimi, Joe, Barbara all worked well beyond expectations to make the events successful..

Again, the annual Snowflake Sale was a success due to the hours put in by the dedicated volunteers. Of particular note were those who baked for the Sale: Bay Shore Middle School students (thanks, Gail Farrell); Susanne Anker; JoAnn Michalowski, Patrice Rodden, Maryann Feeney, Susanne Silhan, Joan Dlouhy, Mimi Parkan, Theresa O’Connor, MaryAnn Miller, Celeste Topazio, Jewell Jacobsen, Barbara Perino, Priscilla Hancock, Josephine Dmitrik, Ernest Pontes, Alison, Lisa Smith, Bernadette Whitwell, Gail Rogals, Gwen Cox, Jane Arbeiter, Diane Hartill, Flo Soblewski. A special thank Anne Gerken for the beautiful roping that she purchased and installed on the fence of the Gibson-Mack-Holt House for the Christmas Season. Volunteers who worked the day of the Snowflake Sale were: JoAnn, Maryann, Jewell, Barry, Joe, Ernest, Priscills, Alison, Ellen, Mimi,Barbara, Matthew, and, of course, Jerry

While there are constantly numerous projects being worked on at the Society, one of note recently was the tireless effort of Ken Hartill who read the Society’s collection of the Paul Bailey and Carl Starace essays on Long Island history. The essays are typed on very fine, aged onion skin paper and are bits of literature to be appreciated and remembered (remember the “old” radio ads sponsored by Grumman? These are the originals of those advertisements). Ken read and categorized the thousands of the priceless collection – thank you, Ken.

Enclosed in this Newsletter is a form to renew membership – Please remember to include an email address (if you have one) when you complete the form and return it to us. Communication between Newsletters, such as meeting and event notifications, etc., will be sent by email. Remember: .The membership of the Society is the lifeblood of the organization. As of December 2015, there are slightly over 300 paid members. Members’ dues and donations enable the Bay Shore Historical Society to provide its valuable services to the community. Please return your dues renewal as soon as possible.

The doors of the Gibson-Mack-Holt House at 22 Maple Ave. are open to all on Tuesdays and Saturdays between 1pm and 4pm. Stop by – check out an old Bay Shore High School Yearbook, look at the large collection of photographs, flip through the collection of hundred year old postcards, glance at the maps and memorabilia that represent Bay Shore’s vibrant history.
