Meeting Notes

Barry called the meeting to order at 7:30 and all recited the Pledge of Allegiance. While standing, a Moment of Silence was held for recently deceased members James Kayser, Kenneth Tucker, and Josephine Gagliano.

Barry reminded all that they are invited to march with the Society in the Bay Shore – Brightwaters St. Patrick's Day Parade on March 12th. He also mentioned that George Munkenback will be the speaker at the March meeting.

Priscilla reported that she and Bob visited the Post Museum in Florida and she has a picture of a period dress for viewing. She also mentioned that a tour of Gardiner's Island led by David Lion Gardiner is available on YouTube.

JoAnn reported that the current membership is 300 and that a descendent of John Gibson has become a Life Time member and has made a sizeable donation to the Society.

The minutes of the January meeting were made available for all to read.

Joe reported that the expenses last month were $670 and income was $620.

The guest speaker was Gene Horton who led a discussion entitled "So You Think You Know Long Island." Mr. Horton's presentation utilized a series of multiple choice answers that engaged all those present to discuss various facts about individuals, places, and events that are important for an understand of Long Island's history.

Refreshments were enjoyed by all thanks to the generosity of JoAnn, Celeste, Mimi, and Barbara.

Respectfully submitted,
Barry
