

Bay Shore Historical Society

Meeting Minutes

21 April 2016

The meeting opened at 7:30 pm with the recitation of the Pledge of Allegiance and then a Moment of Silence for Jewell's sister-in-law and for JoAnn's sister.

Barry thanked Maryann, Mimi, Barbara, Jewell, and Susanne for bring cake and cookies for the meeting. He also noted that a group of Homemakers from Deer Park visited the House this past Tuesday.

Joe reported expenses and income. Membership to date for 2016 is 232.

The speaker for the night was Chris Jend - co-owner of the John Mollenhauer House on Awixa Ave. Chris's presentation was extremely informative, professional, and appealing to all in attendance. In a well-organized manner Chris addressed: I - The Register Listing; II - History of Penataquit Point; III - History of the Mollenhauer and Sullivan Families; and IV -The John Mollenhauer House designed by architect E.G.Dietrich.

After Chris Jend's presentation and a brief question and answer session all were invited to partake in the refreshments.